is Fourth. The world's production of gold in 1911 was estimated at $167,149,600, nccording to the United States Geological Survey. Africa was by far the greatest producer, with $192,972,190; the United States come second, with $16,222,500; Australash third, $59.181,-900; and Mexico fourth, $29,196,000 other targe producers were Russia and Finland, $24,865,000; China, $10,-000,000; British India, $10,463,200; and Canada, $9,762,100. South America as a whole produced nearly $17,000,000.

Mexico was fourth in rank among the gold-producing countries, the output being $25,186,000. This was an increase over the 1910 figures of more han $4,000,000, despite the unsettled militions which prevalled in some pertions of the Republic during the war. With a return to settled cond tions and the continued introduction of modern mining and metallurgical mathods into Mexico leading to renewed development of the great metal resources of the country, the gold out put may be expected to increase still

Some time after Auguste Van Biene, the celebrated cellist, settled in London he made the acquaintance of that irrejecssible comedian, J. L. Toole. The latter had conceived an extraordinary craze for distributing safety razors broadcast among his friends and promptly begged Van Biene's acceptance of one.

The distinguished actor-musician acknowledged the gift with thanks, but when he next met Toole the lacerated condition of his chin afforded ample proof that the razor was hardly as safe as might have been expected. Toole asked to see the razor and at once burst into a roar of laughter.

"Dear me!" be gasped. "And you actually tried to shave yourself with that? Why, I've forgotten to send you the blades!"

An Eye For an Eye.

A certain very attractive young lady has a host of male admirers, among whom is a rather handsome and viva into society and is a hot favorite among the picer sex because of his Alack! One of them is glass. But there is no need, as he says, for every one to know that, and, really, it seems so much the counterpart of the other that not one in a hundred would detect it. On one occasion he escorted the young lady in question to a reten and coffee he looked unutterable things at her, when all of a sudden she gave vent to a startled exclama-
